

Jewish Disability Awareness & Inclusion

Friday
March 16, 2018

Please join our special Shabbat programs
To promote Disability Awareness and Inclusion
During 6 p.m. Shabbat services
At Congregation Har HaShem

In the main sanctuary:

- Rabbi Bronstein speaks about her journey with epilepsy.
- Elizabeth Lichtenstein talks about parenting a child with disabilities.
- Sign language interpretation is provided.

At the Youth Shabbat Service in the South Building:

- Yael Greene talks about being a young person with autism.
- 3rd – 12th graders participate in a fun, musical service all their own.

Stay for snacks and socializing:

- Allergy-friendly oneg after services in the social hall.
- No RSVP; no fee. Just show up.

Interested individuals from all religions and denominations
encouraged to attend

—
Welcoming individuals who need to move, make noise,
or participate in ways
that meet their needs

—
Contact inclusion@harhashem.org
with any questions

—
6 p.m. Special Shabbat Programs

Congregation Har HaShem

3950 Baseline Road
Boulder, CO 80303
303-499-7077

www.HarHaShem.org